

Image: QEPCCC

Image: Town of Oakville logo

Call for Proposals

Artist-Led Community Mural

Queen Elizabeth Community and Cultural Centre

Town of Oakville

Deadline: October 22, 2017 Midnight. EST

Artist Fee: $3,000 CAD (maximum)

The Town of Oakville invites professional artists to submit proposals to create a community mural for a generator located at the entrance of Queen Elizabeth Community and Cultural Centre. The final artwork will be a digital mural to be printed onto vinyl wrapping media that will cover a 29' wide x 9' high generator. The selected proposal will engage the local community in the artwork design and reflect on the community centre.

Eligible artists will be art professionals with outdoor mural, large installation or public art experience. This call is open to national artists, however preference will be given to artists living within the Greater Toronto Area community. Artists with demonstrated connections to Oakville will be given priority.

Proposals will be assessed based on artistic merit, relevance of the proposed artwork to the site and demonstrated capacity to complete the project.

Submission requirements:

1. Artist curriculum vitae (maximum 3 pages)
2. Proposal. A project description outlining your experience, your approach to engaging the local community in the creation of the artwork, and a community project plan and timeline (maximum 2 pages)
3. A maximum of 5 images of your artwork related to this project (i.e. large scale paintings, murals or design projects)

Submissions accepted by email to: public.art@oakville.ca

Only one submission per artist will be accepted.

Only selected artists will be contacted.

Project timeline:

Submission Deadline: October 22, 2017, Midnight

Artist Notification: October 2017

Community Engagement: November 2017

Installation Project Completion and Public Launch: December 2017

Queen Elizabeth Park Community and Cultural Centre (QEPCCC) located at 2302 Bridge Road, is a one-of-a-kind, multi-use facility featuring more than 144,000 square feet of activity space, making it one of the largest venues in Canada to house a diverse collection of artistic, cultural and active living program opportunities, and cultural organizations.

QEPCCC offers inspiring programs for all ages and abilities including classes, workshops, camps and drop-in activities. The facility boasts an aquatics centre, fitness centre, two gymnasias, a rock climbing wall, a youth centre, an older adults centre, dance studios, a recording studio, fine arts studios, a rehearsal hall, black box theatre, galleries, and museum space.

For more information contact: Tonia Di Risio, Program Supervisor – Culture, 905-845-6601 ext. 4614 or email: tonia.dirisio@oakville.ca

Visit oakville.ca for information about arts and culture in Oakville.